Workshop Description

One Child, One Teacher, One Parent:

How Parents of Children Who Learn Differently Can Help Their Kids Thrive Academically

Children who learn differently – including those who have ADD, ADHD, and executive functioning deficits – need their teachers and parents to work together as allies so that they can thrive academically. Seasoned educators and President of Crimson Coaching™, Dr. P. (Dominique Padurano, Ph.D.) counsels parents on how to best interact with their children's teachers so that their kids can live up to their full academic potential.

Dr. P.'s Bio

After teaching for more than a decade at some of the nation's top high schools, Dr. P. (Dominique Padurano, Ph.D.) founded Crimson Coaching, a boutique tutoring, test prep, and college counseling consultancy based in New York City. Dr. P. has taught hundreds of students – including those who learn differently – subjects from Algebra to French to Spanish to World History; prepared them to take standardized tests like the ISEE, SAT, ACT, GRE and Regents and APs; and coached them to write applications that won them admissions to their dream colleges. Dr. Padurano earned her own Bachelor's degree, magna cum laude, from Harvard College, and also possesses a Master's in Education, and a Ph.D. in History. She works with clients worldwide and may be contacted directly at info@crimsoncoaching.com.
