

Succeeding as a Distance Learner

When classes went online in March 2020, many students floundered. Untethered from the daily structure of bells and teacher reminders, some forgot deadlines – others never even started schoolwork. Crimson Coaching Founder and Head Coach Dr. P. (Dominique Padurano, M.S., Ed., Ph.D.) teaches students how to make a daily schedule, bolster motivation, and use technology to help rather than hinder their academic growth during the age of distance learning. This Zoom webinar is geared for students grades 6-12, though college students may also find it useful. Parents are encouraged to attend alongside their children so that they can reinforce the concepts and strategies Dr. P. shares.

Dr. P.'s Bio

After teaching for more than a decade at some of the nation's top high schools, Dr. P. founded Crimson Coaching, a boutique tutoring, test prep, and college counseling consultancy based in New York City. While teaching, tutoring, and coaching students to succeed in a variety of school subjects and tests, she's seen first-hand how the techniques she shares in this webinar help students to stay focused and reach their potential. Dr. Padurano earned her own Bachelor's degree, magna cum laude, from Harvard College, and also possesses a Master's in Education, and a Ph.D. in History. She works with clients worldwide and may be contacted directly at info@crimsoncoaching.com.
